1. Students will follow the above schedule for midterms scheduled on the listed dates. Please review schedule B for the Regents exams schedule.
2. Students need to pay careful attention to the schedule and note the periods that their classes meet. Students should only be in the building if they have a scheduled exam or review session. Students will be expected to go home once they have finished their midterm exam for the day.
3. Each class period is one hour and fifty minutes in length with the exception of lunch/study periods (30 min. periods) and A/B courses (55 min. periods).
4. Example: For Tuesday, January 24th – A student has Period 1 English, Period 7 Social Studies and Period 4 Lunch. This student should go home at the end of session 2 since he/she has no more classes/exams for this day.
5. Arrangements for make-up exams must be made with the subject area teacher. Make-ups will be provided to accommodate illness, religious observances or family emergencies. A note must be provided to the subject area teacher.
