- Students will follow the above schedule for midterms scheduled on the listed dates. Please review schedule B for the Regents exams schedule.
- Students need to pay careful attention to the schedule and note the periods that their classes meet. Students should only be in the building if they have a scheduled exam or review session. Students will be expected to go home once they have finished their midterm exam for the day.
- Each class period is one hour and fifty minutes in length with the exception of lunch/study periods (30 min. periods) and A/B courses (55 min. periods).
- Example: For Tuesday, January 23rd – A student has Period 1 English, Period 3 Social Studies and Period 7 Lunch. This student should go home at the end of session 2 since he/she has no more classes/exams for this day.
- *Make-up exams will be scheduled on Friday, January 26 using the above schedule. Teachers will coordinate make-up exams, please check your email to know the location and time for each specific make-up exam. Make-ups will be provided to accommodate illness, religious observances or family emergencies. A note must be provided to the subject area teacher.
