

Eastport South Manor Junior-Senior High School
Science Department
"Commitment to Excellence"

WEEKLY OBJECTIVES

Subject: SUPA Forensic Science

Week #: 20

Date:1/21-24/2014

Teachers: Diane Starbuck-Ribaudo

Topic: Physical Evidence- Tool Impression Evidence and Quarterly

Learning Objectives:

- Successfully complete the 2nd Quarterly exam.
- Compare various tools to possible toolmarks by describing class and individual characteristics of each.
- Synthesize a written forensic scientist report of various toolmarks.
- Explain the forensic significance of class and individual characteristics to the comparison of toolmarks.
- Analysis evidence for class and individual characteristics

Teaching Strategies:

- Toolmark Lab
- Impression Notes with guided student notes
- Other Impression evidence notes (Shoe, Tire, Bitemark)

Learning Activities (Technology/DI):

- Toolmark Lab

Assessment/Data :

- 2nd Quarterly Test
- Class participation, homework
- Graded Toolmark lab
- Graded Shoeprint and Bitemark Lab
- Teaching based on responses to previous assessments
- Teaching based on student participation responses

Special Education Modifications:

- Testing accommodations as per IEP
- Fill in note sheets; printed powerpoint note sheet
- Preferential seating

- Buddy system for notes and/or laboratory work
Closed captioning for all visual presentations

